

Partnerships to change practice

Dr Jon Glasby
SCIE Trustee

social care
institute for excellence

Partnerships to change practice

- The nature of partnership
- How partnerships can help to change practice
- Examples of SCIE partnerships

"Congratulations! You're now empowered to accept all the blame!"

social care
institute for excellence

"And should there be a sudden loss of consciousness during this meeting, oxygen masks will drop from the ceiling."

social care
institute for excellence

"And that's our plan. Any questions?"

social care
institute for excellence

A model for partnerships

- Coordination
- Cooperation
- Collaboration
- Co-production

- Coordination – harmonising separate activities
- Cooperation – sharing common interests and information

- Collaboration – working together on joint activities
- Co-production – joint product with distinctiveness of each party retained

How partnerships help

- Build on a willingness to share knowledge
- Alliances with users
- Create ownership
- Ensure relevance
- Foster active dissemination

Examples of partnership (1)

- Working with government sponsors
- SCIE's Partners' Council – representatives of 40 organisations, one third users or carers, with an advisory role to the board

Examples of partnership (2)

- Practice Partners Network – 26 organisations in social care, who contribute to SCIE's work and share good practice
- Parental Mental Health and Child Welfare Network – 600 members working to develop practice at boundaries of health and social care, adult and children's services

social care
institute for excellence

