SSRG

The network for research, information, planning & evaluation in social care &
health services

SSRG Scotland

Seminar Series: 2002-03

Major Issues and Joint Challenges in Social and Health Care

Purpose of series:

The series is being organised by Social Services Research Group – Scotland to consider systematically the major developments relating to public services for social and health care.

SSRG has selected six 'major issues'

- Joint Future
- Modernising Government and 'e-care'
- ethical issues in data sharing
- recruitment and retention of social and health care staff
- single shared assessments
- community planning

There are several common themes running through these issues. They include

- joint working between public care bodies
- improving public care services
- integration of policy, planning and professional practice
- improving use of resources, including people, data and technology
- data sharing.

Overall, these six big issues represent some of the greatest challenges to public care agencies. SSRG – Scotland therefore expects the series will be both topical and popular.

Programme:

Seminar 1: 'Joint Future for Health and Social Care' – 12 November 2002 (Stirling)

Seminar 2: 'Modernising Government and 'E-Care'' – 17 December 2002 (Edinburgh)

Seminar 3: 'Ethical Issues in Data Sharing' - 6 or 13 February 2003 (Glasgow)

Seminar 4: 'Retention and Recruitment of Staff' – 12 March 2003 (Edinburgh)

Seminar 5: 'Single Shared Assessment' – 31 March 2003 (Stirling)

Seminar 6: 'Linking Care Planning with Community Planning' – 22 May 2003 (Edinburgh)

The seminars will draw mainly on Scottish experiences and expertise, but will also include contributions from elsewhere in the UK.

Target audience:

The seminars are intended for a wide audience, including

- managers, researchers, planning and evaluation staff and practitioners in
 - local government
 - health bodies
 - the voluntary sector
- independent researchers
- staff of academic bodies
- staff of relevant national bodies, including the Scottish Executive, the Scottish Commission for the Regulation of Care, the Scottish Social Services Council, etc

Cost:

It is possible to attend individual events, several events or the entire series. SSRG's pricing offers a discount to SSRG members. The annual cost of corporate and personal memberships are £44 and £39 respectively. To join SSRG, please contact Jackie Watson on 01603-261951 or j.watson@uea.ac.uk

In addition, there is a reduced cost per seminar, for members and non-members alike, the greater the number of seminar places reserved per person.

Block bookings are possible.

An SSRG member who has reserved a place can arrange for another SSRG member (but not a non-member) to take the place reserved, provided that the substitute attendee confirms with SSRG before the date of the seminar the name of the SSRG member whose place they are taking.
